This course is designed for students with two-year Mandarin learning experience at PTCS. Students will continue to acquire the language through daily routine practice, singing, reading books and making stories together in more depth.

- Daily Practice:

Calendar Talk: 12 months, date, days of week, seasons, time, weather and special events

Other Topics: colors, shapes, numbers, sizes, polite words and phrases, clothes, feeling, etc.

- Reading:

Picture book series "My First Chinese Words" will be read to class throughout the year. In addition, students will practice reading on the stories that are created in class.

- Stories making:

Question words that will be used for story asking: who, what, where, or, which, "yes or no" question particle, how, why, when.

High frequency verbs that will be used:

✧ Super 7 (am/like/want/there is/have/go/is located)

✧ Sweet 16 Verbs

(bring/can/come/give/go/have/hear/is/know/say/want/leave/make/put/like/see)

- Writing:

Continue to learn more radicals, characters, phrases and start to practice writing sentences.

*Note: All the reading materials will be passed out to students to glue on the Chinese notebook.

"Good methods are based on interesting stories where you get so interested in the story you forget it's in another language." Dr.Stephen Krashen
